From The Study

Col. Richard Mendelow will be our very special pulpit guest this week at both morning services. "Bucky" as he is affectionately known, will be speaking on the model of Jesus as our "Warrior Savior" when he brings his message. As a decorated officer in the Marine Reserves, he is a converted Jew to Christ who sees his understanding of Christians and the church as "counter insurgents" in a battle against Satan and his minions in the world. I think he is spot on. His new 40 day devotional book will be available for purchase and we will also have a question and answer time on Sunday at 5 pm in the choir suite. I spoke with him on Monday night and he and his wife, Jennifer, are so looking forward to being with us. Let's fill the house!

THEN AT 7 PM Sunday night, we'll be offering a showing of the movie "I Can Only Imagine" in the ROC worship area. This movie has touched millions across the country in its nation-wide release. It really is an amazing story that Bart Millard (the writer of the popular song) didn't even want to tell until a few divinely placed friends insisted that he do so. I'm sure glad they persisted because I think many families have benefitted deeply from the picture. You do need a ticket as space is limited. See Patricia Sunday morning or come by the office.

Vacation Bible School is next week. It will be an "all hands on deck" kind of week. Even if you cannot physically help, you can be praying daily for lives of kids to be touched and changed for God's glory. Make a sweet bite, come help clean up in rooms, make yourself available Sunday afternoon for set up.....the list goes on and on. Double check with Lisia for any specifics.
